Open Workshop-6:30PM

Pledge of Allegiance

Mayor turned the meeting over to our attorney Geoff. Geoff stated that what he had sent over was a working draft of our last go around. It is a version of our existing Sign Ordinance which had suggested changes in it. Beyond that, it is the Council's Sign Ordinance, the sky is the limit. Council can trash the whole thing and start over at square one. Geoff did give some guidelines. He explained those guidelines to Council. The core idea of a Sign Ordinance is to be able to regulate those things that can be nuisances or distractions. The Ordinance requirements must also be clear as well as the permitting process. We will have a Public Hearing on a draft Ordinance and this draft must be available to the public before that Public Hearing. Anyone wanting to put up a sign is clear on the requirements for a sign. Council discussed different points on the original Sign Ordinance. Our attorney will compile a draft with any changes that Council agrees upon. Geoff will send a copy of it to our office at City Hall. This document will then be available for the public to review before our March 12th, Public Hearing.
